Fushimi Inari

Fushimi Inari was dedicated to the Gods of rice and sake by the Hata family in the 8th century. With seemingly endless arcades of vermilion shrine gates across a thickly wooded mountain, this vast complex is a world unto itself. One of the most impressive and memorable sights in Kyoto.

Kiyomizudera

A buzzing hive of activity perched on a hill overlooking the basin of Kyoto, Kiyomizudera is one of Kyoto's most popular and most enjoyable temples. It may not be a tranquil refuge, but it represents the favored expression of faith in Japan

The colorful Nakamise street arcade is approaching the temple complex overflow with vendors selling snacks and souvenirs.
